BIRDS OF PEACE

Sonja Bikic is an artist who finds inspiration in nature. One of her favorite topics are birds as symbols of freedom, peace and birds of wisdom like owls. She also found inspiration in cultural heritage. Motifs from rugs and embroidery transformed in 3D construction of unusual forms of ceramics. She is also a cat lover, so cats are her inspiration too. All these motifs she also uses in her modern jewelry forms . She expresses herself by porcelain and stoneware technique. So far she has had ten solo exhibitions and participated in over thirty joint exhibitions in her country and abroad. She received several awards and honors. The most important publication is “Arts and Crafts in BiH“ issued by the UNESCO organization. From 2014. she is the owner of Gallery Sonja Bikić where she’s permanently employed.
